

ELAN Monthly Sales Report – February 2018

ELAN Microelectronics Corp., a major touch controller leader in global NB market, announced that its consolidated net sales for February 2018 were NT$469 million, (-3.3% YoY, -33.3% MoM). Accumulated Sales for Jan-Feb, 2018 were NT$1,174 million, +16.66% YoY, compared to Jan-Feb, 2017.

February Sales --YoY Comparison

Unit: NT$ Thousand

Year	2018	2017	YoY
Net Sales (Consolidated)	469,985	486,146	(3.3%)

Due to Chinese New Year holidays in this February, the fewer working days made the lower sales of each product line versus the last month. The February consolidated net sales were composed of touch applications, including Biometric applications, accounts for 67%, and non-touch applications accounted for 33%.

ELAN officially announced to enter into the Artificial Intelligence (AI) Field and implemented this plan from the AI application including biometrics to the automotive electronics category, eventually extending the development of the AI platform to plan the long-term development prospect.

ELAN pointed out that in the next three years, the overall plan of the investment in AI development will invest more than 100 human resources, and the investment funds will account for 15% to 30% of total R&D expense. This is an important ongoing task; therefore, we can predict that this part will increase revenue year by year.
