2018 Business Report

1. Business Result of 2018

In 2018, due to multi-profit factors such as the introduction of new customer models, the increase in penetration rate of first-line laptop customers, and the rise in shipments of high-end chip with stylus function, the Company's revenue and profit have achieved excellent performance. Notwithstanding the touchscreen industry has entered into maturity, the Company is still working on promoting its market share and increasing the added value of chips as the focus of operation and thus is still setting growth records in terms of revenue, gross profit margin and profit in this mature industry and market.

In 2018, revenue and profit of touchscreen industry and related applications both grew significantly. The main reason is the close cooperatiive relationship with global major specifications and platform developers such as Microsoft, Wacom, Google, Huawei and other US, China and Japan megafactories, the control of the latest information and technical cooperation, the fast supply of products to first-tier international megafactories, and the establishment of customer's confidence in the Company, which allow the competitive edge in touchscreen products developed by the Company to be realized and resulted in the significant rise in penetration rate among individual customers; it has also led the Company's touchscreen products (touch screen chips or touchpads) to rise significantly in global market share.

In the meanwhile, in addition to the cooperation with specifications and platform developers, the Company's high value-added chip products are also introduced into the products of major specification developers, such as Microsoft's 2-in-1 laptop "Surface Go", Huawei's 2-in-1 laptops, etc. Since the main platform or specification leaders have a wide range of marketing channels around the world, this will boost the increase in volume and price of the Company's products and drive operational growth.

The PST module products showed dazzling performance in 2018. Notwithstanding there was only one customer, it can still achieve nearly 30% annual growth; the main reason of which is that manufacturers have increased the promotion on commercial laptop and achieved results. Since the major global customers of this product are only the Americans and Lenovo (China), the Company is also fully developing US customers in addition to continuously stabilizing its existing customers, hoping to achieve mass production shipments in the coming year.

The Company actively invested in the development and application of biometric product. The overall shipment volume in 2018 was slightly reduced by 3.5% compared to that of the previous year mainly due to large number of capacitive fingerprint scanner suppliers and fierce competition in smart phones, which resulted in a significant drop in average selling price. However, the increase in customers' orders of capacitive fingerprint scanner for laptop have accounted for 50% of the overall fingerprint scanner. In order to seek market differentiation and increase profit margin, the capacitive fingerprint scanner payment, encryption and other features were enhanced to add value, hoping to contribute to the revenue and profit growth in 2019.

Although touchscreen has emerged into mature industry with many domestic and foreign manufacturing competitors, fierce price war in the market and decline in average product selling prices, the Company still effectively reduced costs and optimized product mix based on its strength in chip design technical engineering, which resulted in the increase in overall annual revenue of 14.9% compared with that of the previous year and NT$8,430,000,000 revenue in 2018, setting new records since the establishment of the Company. In addition, due to its continuous product mix optimization and efforts to reduce costs, the gross profit margin was significantly better than that of the previous year and maintained at a high level of 46%, the net operating profit margin reached 21%, and the profit before tax reached NT$1,885,000,000.

Due to the prolonged smart phone replacement cycle, its high penetration rate in many large markets, the political and economic uncertainty, the rise in smart phone prices and other factors, the market demand in smart phones has slowed down. According to IDC's latest research survey, global smart phone shipments will reach 1,400,000,000 units in 2018, which will result in an annual decline of 4.1%. As for the TrendForce laptop shipment report, the total number of laptops shipped in the first three quarters of 2018 was 121,000,000 units, and is anticipated to decline slightly by 1.9% in the fourth quarter due to be effect of the shortage of CPUs; therefore, the shipment of laptops in 2018 is expected to be 163,000,000 units, which will result in an annual decline of 0.13%.

In order to be in line with the rapid changes in the overall economic trend and the ever-lasting high competition in the industry, the Company has continued to invest a large amount of research and development expenses and engineering human resources in the technical improvement and application of touchscreen and biometrics, as well as invest in artificial intelligence (AI) technology to strengthen product functions and continue to strike for cost reduction. In 2018, the annual output of touch screen laptop chips was more than 17,000,000 sets, which include major orders of global first-tier brandname megafactories, with an annual growth rate of 20% and a market share of more than 60%; ranking first in the world.

At the same time, another main product, the Touch Pad, currently has global market share of more than 40%, which is similar to that of the Company's main US competitor. The Company will continue strike to be number one in the world, which is expected to be realized by 2019. In order to enhance the competitiveness of customers in the international market, the Company continuously improves the single-chip, high voltage, low noise and low power consumption characteristic to supply chip products with the best performance, which has achieved good results. In 2018, total shipment volume had reached 66,200,000 units and an annual growth of 15%. Together, touch screen chips and Touch Pad have become the major sources of revenue and profit of the Company.

In product research and development, the Company continued to deepen the research and development of various products with large market demand and respond to the development trend of the terminal market. In 2018, R&D expenditures accounted for 16% of revenue; and successively completed the development of biometric solution that supports laptop encryption function, battery-free contactless biometric smart card solution, 2-in-1 networked fire protection module chip, touchpad and touch point 2-in-1 function chip, touchscreen chip that supports active pen AMOLED screen, solution integrating 18:9 FHD touch screen monitors and drive chips for mobile phones, and NB touch lock (SMUX4.0) solution.

In 2018, the Company's was frequently awarded. The Company won the 2018 Hsinchu Science Park "R&D Accomplishment Award", the 2018 Hsinchu Science Park "Innovative Product Awards", the "Excellent Health workplace" prize and "Gender-Friendly Health Award" issued by the Health Promotion Administration of the Ministry of Health and Welfare, and the Hsinchu Science Park "Distinguished Green Landscaping Award".

2. Summary of Business Plan of 2019

2019 is a year of high uncertainty. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) revised 2019 and 2020 global economic growth forecasts down to be 3.5% and 3.6%, respectively, which were the lowest in three years. The reasons of which are the US-China trade war, China's economic slowdown and Brexit risk, which weaken the economic growth momentum. The US-China trade war has shaken the world. The World Bank had bluntly commented that the arrogant atmosphere of both sides will still be the main cause of impact on the world economy in 2019. As a result, the World Bank's global economic growth rates for 219 and 2020 were revised down to 2.9% and 2.8%, respectively.

Improving the Company's own product R&D capacity is the key in facing the complex and ever-changing overall economy, while clear understanding of the customers' real demands in response to the changes in the big environment. The Company basically is still maintaining a prudent attitude towards 2019 while maintaining growth. The main growth momentum comes from the supply of high value-added biometric products for laptops. Since the average selling price is higher than anticipated, it is expected to further drive revenue and profitability.

Secondly, the TDDI with Pen function solution, which combines touchscreen and LCD driver chips, is a solution that differentiates from the competitors and locks in the market of smart phones. At present, there are many competitors in the market who can supply TDDI chips. In 2019, TDDI chip market will become a even more competitive battlefield. In order to differentiate from the market, emphasizing the provision of better differentiated solutions to its customers and seeking to launch chips with stylus function will help the Company to increase product profit and avoid price war.

The chip solution with touchscreen and capacitive stylus functions is one of the most competitive products of the Company with shipment grew by nearly 70% in 2018 and mainly (90%) supplied to the laptop market. Currently, the Out Cell, On-Cell, and In-Cell designs are fully supported in respond to the increase in the chance of using stylus due to the increasingly enlarged display screen of smart phones while foldable smart phones is emerging, which all provides growth opportunity for chip with touchscreen and capacitive stylus functions. In 2019, the Company will invest full efforts in this potentially huge business opportunity.

The touch screen chip for laptops still holds a high global market share, and its shipment volume of this year is still possible to be better than that of last year. The Touch Pad is another main product line of the Company, which is mainly used in laptops and currently holds a global market share of more than 40%; its overall shipment volume this year will be better than that of last year under the prospect of two operating systems (Window base & Chrome) and the increase in customer penetration rate, which ensures the goal of becoming No.1 in global market share.

The Company is a professional IC design company. The smooth cooperation of overall supply chain is crucial, because the chips are outsourced; therefore, continuous maintenance of upstream and downstream partnerships with domestic and foreign IC foundries and packaging & testing companies is adopted to gain cost competitiveness, while cooperating with supply chain manufacturers such as touchscreen factories, LCD display factories, smart phone and laptop assembly factories to ensure smooth product shipments and maintain long-term and close partnerships with customers.

In addition, the Company's future development strategy will still be affected by the external competitive environment, regulations and overall business environment, but the Company will continue tp develop its core technologies and integrate imaging, sound, entertainment and other components to create cost-effective chips with powerful functions and to offer customers with world-class competitive solutions via system integration concept, while implementing business strategies, establishing patent networks, developing blueprints, continuous investing in the development of new products, improving performance and quality of chips, and exploring own core competitive edge, which are the cornerstones of outstanding revenue and profit.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors ELAN MICROELECTRONICS CORPORATION: Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of ELAN MICROELECTRONICS CORPORATION ("the Company"), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the statement of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, base on our audits and the reports of other auditors (please refer to Other Matter paragraph), the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2018 and 2017, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Certification of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Certified Public Accountants Code of Professional Ethics in Republic of China ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. Base on our audits and the reports of other auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis of our opinion.

Other Matter

We did not audit the financial statements of Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp, which represented investment accounted for using the equity method of the Company. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose reports have been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as they relate to the amounts included for Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp, are based solely on the reports of other auditors. The investment in Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp accounted for using the equity method constituted 2.56% and 2.60% of the total assets at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and the related share of profit of associates and joint ventures accounted for using the equity method constituted (0.87)% and (0.72)% of the total income before tax for the years then ended, respectively.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

1. Valuation of inventories

Please refer to Notes 4(g) for accounting policy of inventory, Notes 5 for accounting estimations and assumption uncertainty of inventory valuation, and Notes 6(d) for the write-down of inventories to net realizable value.

Key Audit Mattter Explanation:

The inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Due to the rapid changes in the economy and the environment, and the production technology update, the cost of inventories are in a risk that the inventory cost exceeds its net realizeable value.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

For valuation of the inventories, we reviewed the inventory aging reports, analyzed the inventory turnovers and changes in its aging inventory for each period to assess the reasonableness of the Company's inventory provition rate, evaluated the accounting policy rationality, understood the sales price adopted by the management evaluation, reviewed the sales status and evaluation which was based on the net realizable value used to assess the appropriateness of the Company management's estimation on inventory provision.

2. Revenue recognition

Please refer to Note 4(p) for accounting policy of revenue recognition.

Key Audit Matter Explanation:

The major business activities of the Company are the manufacture and sale of integrated circuits. The Company also offers research and development services with respect to the products presented above. Test of revenue recognition is one of the key audit matters in our audit. Revenue is the key performance indicator to evaluate the performance by the investors and management, and thus, needs significant attention in our audit.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

We tested the effectiveness of the related controls surrounding revenue recognition, reviewed relevant sales documents to evaluate whether the revenue recognition is consistent with the accounting policy; performed trend analysis on the top ten customers and revenue by products, to assess significant exception, if any; tested the sales transactions before and after the end of the year and its relevant documents to evaluate the accuracy of the amount and period of the revenue recognized .

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including the Audit Committee or supervisors) are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Tseng, May-Yu and Gau, Wey-Chuan.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors
ELAN MICROELECTRONICS CORPORATION:
Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of ELAN MICROELECTRONICS CORPORATION ("the Company"), and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the "Group"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, base on our audits and the report of other auditors (please refer to Other Matter paragraph), the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2018 and 2017, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and with the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), International Accounting Standards ("IASs"), interpretation developed by International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC") or the former Standing Interpretations Committee ("ISIC") endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the "Regulations Governing Auditing and Certification of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants" and the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Certified Public Accountants Code of Professional Ethics in Republic of China ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. Base on our audits and the reports of other auditors, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis of our opinion.

Other Matter

We did not audit the financial statements of Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp, which represented investment accounted for using the equity method of the Group. Those statements were audited by another auditor, whose report has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp, is based solely on the report of another auditor. The investment in Top Taiwan X Venture Capital Co. Ltd and Uniband Electronic Corp accounted for using the equity method constituted 2.49% and 2.54% of the consolidated total assets at December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and the related share of profit of associates and joint ventures accounted for using the equity method constituted (0.88)% and (0.74)% of the consolidated total income before tax for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

The Company has additionally prepared its parent company only financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, on which we have issued an unmodified opinion with emphasis of matter paragraph or other matter paragraph.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

1. Valuation of inventories

Please refer to Notes 4(h) for accounting policy of inventory, Notes 5 for accounting estimations and assumption uncertainty of inventory valuation, and Notes 6(d) for the write-down of inventories to net realizable value.

Key Audit Mattter Explanation:

The inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Due to the rapid changes in the economy and the environment, and the production technology update, the cost of inventories are in a risk that the inventory cost exceeds its net realizeable value.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

For valuation of the inventories, we reviewed the inventory aging reports, analyzed the inventory turnovers and changes in its aging inventory for each period to assess the reasonableness of the Group's inventory provition rate, evaluated the accounting policy rationality, understood the sales price adopted by the management evaluation, reviewed the sales status and evaluation which was based on the net realizable value used to assess the appropriateness of the Group management's estimation on inventory provision.

2. Revenue recognition

Please refer to Note 4(p) for accounting policy of revenue recognition.

Key Audit Matter Explanation:

The major business activities of the Group are the manufacture and sale of integrated circuits. The Group also offers research and development services with respect to the products presented above. Test of revenue recognition is one of the key audit matters in our audit. Revenue is the key performance indicator to evaluate the performance by the investors and management, and thus, needs significant attention in our audit.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

We tested the effectiveness of the related controls surrounding revenue recognition, reviewed relevant sales documents to evaluate whether the revenue recognition is consistent with the accounting policy; performed trend analysis on the top ten customers and revenue by products, to assess significant exception, if any; tested the sales transactions before and after the end of the year and its relevant documents to evaluate the accuracy of the amount and period of the revenue recognized.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and IFRSs, IASs, interpretation as well as related guidance endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Tseng, May-Yu and Gau, Wey-Chuan.

Annex I

ELAN MICROELECTRONICS CORPORATION Rules Governing the Proceedings of Shareholders Meeting

- 1. Unless otherwise provided by the rules and regulation or Articles of Association, the shareholders meeting of the Company shall be subject to the Rules.
- 2. The "shareholder" mentioned in the Rules shall refer to the shareholder itself and proxy who present on behalf of the shareholder.
- 3. The Company shall specify the time and venue of accepting registration of the shareholders and other precautions in the notice of the meeting.
 - The aforementioned time of accepting registration of the shareholders shall be at least 30 minutes before the commencement of the meeting; the registration location shall be clearly marked and equipped with adequate personnel.
 - The voting rights are calculated according to the attendance book or the attendance card submitted at the time the shareholder registered. The shareholder (or proxy) listed on the attendance card delivered to the Company shall be deemed to be present in personal; the Company shall not be held responsible for the verification. The attendance and voting at the shareholders' meeting shall be based on the shares.
- 4. The place where the shareholders' meeting of the company is convened shall be at the place where the Company is located or where it is convenient for the shareholders to attend and suitable for holding the shareholders' meeting. The meeting shall commence no earlier than 9:00 am or no later than 3 pm.
- 5. The Company may assign lawyer(s), CPA(s) or related personnel to be attend the shareholders' meeting. Staff attending the shareholders' meeting shall wear an identification card or armband.
- 6. The Company shall record and video tape the entire process of the shareholders' registration process, the meeting process, and the ballot counting process since the time of accepting the shareholders' registration.
 - The aforementioned audio-video materials shall be kept for at least one year. However, if a shareholder filed a litigation in accordance with Article 189 of the Company Act, the said audio-video materials shall be kept until the end of the litigation.
- 7. The chairman shall announce the commencement of the meeting at the time of the meeting. However, if the number of shareholders present failed to represent at least half of the total number of issued shares, the chairman may announce the postponement of the meeting, the number of which shall be limited to two times and the total time of postponement shall not exceed one hour. When the number of shareholders present still does not constitute the quorum, but those present represent one-third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be passed by a majority of those present pursuant to Paragraph 1 Article 175 of the Company Act; provided that, if the number of shareholders present reached at least half of the total number of issued shares prior to the end of the meeting, the tentative resolution so made shall be re-proposed for resolution of the meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

8. For a shareholders' meeting convened by the Board of Directors, its agenda shall be set by the Board of Directors; the meeting shall be held in accordance with the scheduled agenda and shall not be changed without resolution of the shareholders' meeting. For a shareholders' meeting convened by convener other than the Board of Directors, the provision prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall apply. The chairman may not announce meeting adjourned prior to the end of the scheduled agenda mentioned in the preceding two paragraphs without a resolution.

If the chairman violated the rules of procedure and announced meeting adjourned, one may be elected as an acting chairman upon consent of a majority of the shareholders present and continue the meeting.

After the meeting is adjourned, except for the circumstances prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the shareholders may not elect an acting chairman to continue the meeting at the original venue or another place.

- 9. When a shareholder wishes to speak, he/she must first submit request slip stating his/her attendance card number (or shareholder number), name and subject of the speech, and the chairman shall arrange the order of his/her speech. The attending shareholders who submitted the request slip but did not speak shall be deemed as have not spoken. If the content of the speech is inconsistent with the contents of the request slip, the content of the speech shall prevail. When the attending shareholder is speaking, other shareholders shall not, unless agreed by the chairman and the speaking shareholder, interfere; the chairman shall request those who so violate to stop such behavior.
- 10. Each shareholder shall not speak in the same motion for more than two times without consent of the chairman and shall not exceed five minutes each time. Shareholder whose speech violated the provisions of the preceding paragraph or exceeds the scope of the motion, the chairman may stop his/her speech.
- 11. When a legal person is attending the shareholders' meeting, it may assign only one representative to attend. If the legal person shareholder assigns more than two representatives to attend the shareholders meeting, only one person may speak in the same motion.
- 12. After the attending shareholder made his/her speech, the chairman may reply in personal or designate a relevant person to make a reply.
- 13. If the Chairman believes that the motion is ready to enter the voting procedure after the discussion, he may declare ending of the discussion and call for a vote.

14. A shareholder may, at each shareholder meeting, issue a power of attorney printed by the Company specifying the scope of authorization to entrust a proxy to attend the shareholders' meeting.

A shareholder who issues a power of attorney is limited to entrust one person only, and the power of attorney shall be served to the Company within five days prior to the commencement of the shareholders' meeting. If there is more than one power of attorney, the first one served shall prevail; however, this shall not apply to the one so entrusted prior to the cancellation.

If a shareholder wishes to attend the shareholders' meeting in person after the power of attorney is delivered to the Company, he/she shall notify the Company in writing of the cancellation of the entrustment within two days prior to the commencement of the shareholders' meeting; if the cancellation failed to be made in time, the voting rights exercised by the proxy so entrusted shall prevail.

- 15. The chairman may determine when to call for a break during the meeting at his/her own discrete.
- 16. Except for those set forth in Paragraph 2, Article 179 of the Company Act, a shareholder shall have one voting power in respect of each share in his/her/its possession.

Resolutions at a shareholders' meeting shall, unless otherwise provided for in the Company Act and Articles of the Company, be adopted by a majority vote of the shareholders present, who represent more than one-half of the total number of voting shares.

If there is an amendment or alternative proposal to the same motion, the chairman shall arrange the order of voting along with the original proposal. If one of the proposals is authorized, the other proposals shall be deemed to be vetoed and no further votes are required.

The inspector and ballot clerk for the voting of the motion shall be appointed by the chairman, provided that the inspector must be a shareholder.

The ballots of the voting at the shareholders' meeting or for an election motion shall be counted at the public location in the venue of the shareholders' meeting; the result (including the votes received) shall be announced on the spot and documented.

Election of a director at shareholders' meeting shall be handled according to the Company's rules governing the relevant apointment, and results (including the list of elected directors and independent directors and the votes received) of the election shall be announced on the spot.

17. If there is an amendment or alternative proposal to the same motion, the chairman shall arrange the order of voting along with the original proposal. If one of the proposals is authorized, the other proposals shall be deemed to be vetoed and no further votes are required.

- 18. The chairman may direct the pickets (or security personnel) to help maintain order of the venue. The pickets (or security personnel) shall wear "PICKET" arm badge when maintaining order on site.
- 19. Resolutions adopted at a shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, which shall be affixed with the signature or seal of the chairman of the meeting and shall be distributed to all shareholders of the company within twenty (20) days after the close of the meeting. The preparation and distribution of the minutes of shareholders' meeting as required in the preceding Paragraph may be affected by means of electronic transmission.

The Company may distribute the minutes as required in the preceding Paragraph by means announcing on public information observatory.

The minutes of shareholders' meeting shall record the date and place of the meeting, the name of the chairman, the method of adopting resolutions, and a summary of the essential points of the proceedings and the results of the meeting. The minutes shall be kept persistently throughout the life of the company.

20. The Rules shall be implemented upon approval of the shareholders' meeting, and the same shall apply upon the amendments.
